

What is your field of expertise/extraordinary ability and what is your proposed job title? ***

Please briefly describe your relevant education, experience, and training ***

LIST of what will apply:

1. Documentation of receipt of lesser nationally or internationally recognized prizes or awards for excellence in the field of endower.

Provide the following information/documents: short description for each prize or award (include a website).

- a) The criteria used to grant the prizes or awards;
- b) The significance of the prizes or awards, to include the national or international recognition that the prizes or awards share;
- c) The reputation of the organization or panel granting the prizes or awards;
- d) Who is considered for the prizes or awards, including the geographic scope for which candidates may apply;
- e) How many prizes are awarded each year;
- f) Previous winners of the award
- g) Documentary evidence establishing how the award(s) was/were given for excellence in the beneficiary's field.

Note: For each prize or award, please provide: A copy of each prize or award certificate; or A clear photograph of each prize or award, or Public announcement regarding the awarding prizes or awards issued by the granting organization.

2. Evidence of participation, on a panel or individually, as a judge of the work of others in the same or an allied field of specialization.

1. Provide evidence of participation on a panel, as a judge of the work of others: include brochures, invitation, and short description of the panel.

To meet the criterion requirement, you have to show evidence that you have not only been invited to judge the work of others, but you have actually participated in judging the work of others in the same or an allied field of specialization for which classification is sought. You can provide evidence of anything that shows the prestigious nature of the event you have participated in as a judge. It might include:

- a) Evidence of selection criteria of judges for the event/competition.
- b) Evidence showing that you have been invited to judge the work of others in the particular event/competition and that you have actually participated as a judge.
- c) Details about the participants (whether professional or rookie) and the event/competition.
- d) Name of other judges, if any.
- e) Other information/details showing the significance of the event/competition. For instance, if you did a peer review for a journal, you can provide evidence of the market value of such a journal.

3. Evidence of the authorship of scholarly articles in the field, in professional journals or other major media.

1.Documentary evidence that the beneficiary's articles in professional trade magazines were written for an intended to be read by learned persons in a given field.

4. Evidence of performance in a lead, starring, or critical role for organizations or establishments with distinguished reputation.

1.Provide letters from current or former employer (s) with personal knowledge of the significance of the beneficiary's leading role. The letters should contain detailed and probative information that specifically address how the beneficiary's role for the organization or establishment is or was leading or critical. Details should include the specific tasks or accomplishments of the beneficiary as compared to others who are employed in similar pursuits within the field of endeavor.

2.Documentary evidence to demonstrate how the beneficiary's role was/is leading or critical for the organizations or establishments

- a) If a leading role, the evidence must establish that the beneficiary is (or was) a leader. A title, with appropriate matching duties, can help to establish if a role is (or was), in fact, leading.
- b) If a critical role, the evidence must establish that the beneficiary has contributed in a way that is of significant importance to the outcome of the organization or establishment's activates. A supporting role may be considered "critical" if the beneficiary's performance in the role is (or was) important in that way. It is not the title of the beneficiary's role, but rather the beneficiary's performance in the rile that determines whether the role is (or was) critical.
- c) Provide evidence to demonstrate the distinguished reputation of the organization or establishments for which the beneficiary performed in leading or critical roles. The evidence should document the organizations or establishments eminence, distinction, or excellence.

5. Evidence of having commanded a high salary or other significantly high remuneration for services in relation to others.

- a) 1.Copies of the beneficiary's W-2 or 1099 forms for years in which the beneficiary has received a high salary in the field of endeavor. Alternatively, the petitions may provide similar foreign tax documents which establish yearly wages earned outside the U.S.

6. Evidence of published material about you in professional or major trade publications or other major media

- a) Is there any published material about you in any trade publications or major news media? If so, please list the most relevant examples *

7. Evidence of your original scientific, scholarly, artistic, athletic, or business-related contributions of major significance to the field

1. Have you made original contributions of major significance to your field? If so, in simple terms, explain what is original and significant about them.?

- a) Copies of patents (showing the beneficiary as author or coauthor). If you have patent, we also need to show that has been utilized and proved to be significant to the field;
- b) Evidence that the beneficiary's major significant contributions provoked widespread public commentary in the field of endeavor and have been widely cited;
- c) Evidence of visitor traffic to the beneficiary's website, if the beneficiary's business is primarily based on-line;
- d) The number of individuals who purchased or downloaded the beneficiary's products or applications;
- e) Contracts with companies using the beneficiary's products;
- f) Evidence of the beneficiary's work being implemented by others. This may include, but is not limited to contracts with companies using the beneficiary's products, the beneficiary's licensed technology being used by other

8. Evidence of your membership in associations in the field which demand outstanding achievement of their members

1. Copies of the beneficiary's membership certificate and membership letter from the professional organization granting membership for outstanding achievements in the field of expertise.

- a) Are you a member of any organizations which require outstanding achievement? If so, name the organization and describe your membership. *